Trailblazer Tavern

San Francisco's Hawaiian hideaway – Trailblazer Tavern is an unforgettable culinary experience mixed with oceans of flavor drawn from the Hawaiian Islands and the Pacific Rim. With a little bit of paradise infused in every detail, this culinary experience crafted by Chef Michael Mina and James Beard-nominated Hawaiian Chefs Michelle Karr-Ueoka and Wade Ueoka of Honolulu's MW Restaurant is a tribute to the trio's shared love of the Islands nestled in San Francisco's burgeoning East Cut neighborhood.

Located within the Salesforce East building, Trailblazer Tavern offers high-energy dining that blends the true Aloha spirit with the magic of its signature chefs across a series of dishes all infused with the bountiful flavors of the Pacific Ocean. With an array of Hawaiian and Pacific Islands inspired dishes, fruit-forward cocktails, and award-winning desserts – this is more than just a tavern, this is an island of craveable whimsy. Whether you want to seal the deal over a memorable lunch, indulge in an unparalleled happy hour or dine on the best desserts in San Francisco Trailblazer Tavern reminds you that the perfect day starts and ends in paradise.

EVENT DINING

Trailblazer Tavern can accommodate a party, large or small, and can host special events for either lunch or dinner. Adorned with scenic images of islands of Hawaii, Trailblazer Tavern offers the Ohana Room separated from the main restaurant. This room is equipped with a flat screen monitor for AV needs and can accommodate groups up to 24 guests as a seated lunch or dinner. The restaurant is also available to reserve partially and in its entirety for any special event.

Born in Cairo, Egypt, and raised in Ellensburg, Washington, Chef Michael Mina has enjoyed a love affair with the kitchen, creating memorable dining experiences for guests from a very early age.

Chef Mina's epicurean journey began in 1987 at the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park. During those 18 months of formal schooling, he spent his weekends sharpening his natural talents with hands-on experience in Charlie Palmer's kitchen at the upscale Aureole in New York City.

At the start of his career, Chef Mina was presented with the opportunity of a lifetime with then-executive chef of the Bel Air Hotel in Los Angeles, Chef George Morrone. The two were asked to develop a concept and create a menu for an upscale seafood restaurant in San Francisco – the city Chef Mina had dreamed of calling home one day.

Welcomed to San Francisco by a major earthquake his second day in the city, he was unfazed and went to work immediately under Chef George's direction. Chef Mina dedicated himself to creating a complete dining experience – training the entire kitchen staff personally and refining the menu as chef de cuisine. AQUA opened to rave reviews and national acclaim in 1991. Chef Mina served as AQUA's executive chef from 1993 to 2002, where he was awarded Rising Star Chef of the Year in 1997 and Best California Chef in 2002 by the James Beard Foundation. Chef Mina's culinary and business vision led to the founding of his company, MINA Group, with partner Andre Agassi in 2002.

Honored with numerous accolades, including a Michelin star at MICHAEL MINA from 2012 to 2018, James Beard Foundation "Who's Who of Food & Beverage" inductee in 2013, Gayot Restaurateur of the Year 2011, Bon Appétit Chef of the Year 2005, and many more, Chef Mina continues to dazzle the culinary world with bold dining concepts.

Chef Mina has been featured in such national media as Bon Appétit, Food & Wine, Newsweek, TIME, Robb Report, Travel + Leisure, Wine Spectator, in addition to the Food Network, the CBS Early Show, the NBC Today Show and Fox's syndicated "Good Day Live." He has been a featured guest chef at the James Beard House numerous times and cooked for three U.S. presidents: Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, and Barack Obama.

Born and raised in Honolulu, acclaimed husband-and-wife team Michelle Karr-Ueoka and Wade Ueoka are the force behind both Trailblazer Tavern and Oahu's renowned MW Restaurant.

Michelle Karr-Ueoka

Michelle is the human embodiment of the aloha spirit. She began training at The Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, NY where her talents caught the eye of none other than Chef Thomas Keller. He invited her to join the team at The French Laundry where she honed her craft, and yet the islands kept calling to Michelle. Eventually, she left the mainland and rejoined Alan Wong's. There, she spent six years relishing the savory side of the business and yet Michelle has always enjoyed the sweeter things in life. When Chef Keller invited her to join his team at Per Se as a pastry chef, she wholeheartedly accepted the career-changing role. After years of hard work and many moves around the country, Michelle finally achieved her dream of becoming a pastry chef.

Wade Ueoka

Wade began his career as a celebrated chef in an unusual place: a fry cook at Zippy's. After earning a culinary degree from Kapiolani Community College and after just two years at Zippy's, Wade landed a job as a prep cook at Alan Wong's before rising through the ranks to chef de cuisine after a mere two years.

Wade's career journey continued with excitement and prestige. He lent his talents to The French Laundry and Las Vegas' Alex. However, Wade's biggest inspirations are the Asian delicacies that his mother cooked when he was a child.

That's why Wade and Michelle opened their first joint venture, MW Restaurant, in 2013. The following year, MW was nominated by the James Beard Foundation for Best New Restaurant.

To say that Chef Mina was blown away by his first experience at MW Restaurant would be an understatement. He recalled, "after dining at the celebrated MW, I was completely inspired by everything they were doing and wanted to bring their authentic experience and 'ohana spirit' to San Francisco." In partnership with Chef Mina, Michelle and Wade opened Trailblazer Tavern in 2018. With lively dining and jaw-dropping desserts, the restaurant quickly earned the reputation as a hidden gem.
