ELIJAH CRAIG

A Curated Beverage Experience Spawned
by Mina Group Beverage Obsession

Known as the “Father of Bourbon”, Elijah Craig was a Baptist preacher, a road builder and a master distiller. He has been credited with being the first EVER to age a spirit in charred oak barrels, changing the way we age bourbon forever. Heaven Hill Distillery still uses the 200-year-old methods that Elijah and his family used and are proud to use locally grown corn for their bourbon. Please enjoy our crafted cocktails or simply enjoy Elijah Craig over ice. Either way you are sure to taste a touch of American history with every sip.

{ CIGARS }

{ MILD }

THE GRIFFIN'S ROBUSTO

16

Made in The Dominican Republic by Davidoff. Mild, with a slight citrus undertone and hints of spice. Creamy, smooth and flawless construction with Connecticut wrapper.

DAVIDOFF 2000

28

Davidoff 2000 is a mild to medium, very creamy cigar. The 2000 is probably the most famous of all of the Davidoff cigars. It is made using a beautiful Ecuadorian shade-grown Connecticut wrapper draped over hand-selected fillers and binder. This cigar is perfect for the novice and aficionado alike.

ROMEO Y JULIETA GRAN TORO TUBO

26

The Reserva Real Gran Toro is a premium handmade cigar that features a Connecticut-shade Ecuadorian wrapper that is golden brown and silky to the feel. This cigar is paired with Nicaraguan long fillers to give the Reserva Real Gran Toro Tubo a rich, nutty, toasted flavor that is mild to medium in body and strength.

CAMACHO CONNECTICUT ROBUSTO

16

The Camacho Connecticut breaks the mold by offering a cigar that is delicately creamy and smooth yet maintains itself in the standards you have come to expect from Camacho through its medium spice, earthy undertones and high quality. It is comprised of a Connecticut shade wrapper grown in Ecuador, a Honduran binder and Dominican/Honduran long filler tobacco.

{ MEDIUM }

EASTERN STANDARD CORRETTO 5/50 28

Eastern Standard is made in The Dominican Republic by Caldwell Cigar Company. This cigar features an Ecuadorian-grown Connecticut shade hybrid wrapper, which is produced in exceptionally small quantities. It is creamy and spicy yet very smooth. It is sure to impress even the most sophisticated palates.

CHATEAU FUENTE DOUBLE CHATEAU 22

This amber-colored Dominican cigar is a super smooth and creamy Robusto that offers touches of cocoa and coffee with spice and white pepper hints on the finish. Arturo Fuente Chateau Fuente cigars are medium in body and made with smooth, aromatic Connecticut shade wrappers.

MONTECRISTO WHITE SERIES TORO 26

The elegant Montecristo White boasts a lovely, hand-selected Ecuadorian-Connecticut shade wrapper, paired with a Nicaraguan binder and a blend of the choicest Dominican and Nicaraguan long fillers. The White makes for a smooth, and creamy, rich, flavorful, well-rounded smoke. The Montecristo White has quickly become a favorite of aficionados who appreciate a good complex smoke without an overwhelming amount of strength.

DAVIDOFF ART EDITION PERFECTO 60

Davidoff's master blenders have created an exceptional cigar that delivers beautiful floral and pepper notes, balanced with a smooth creaminess and sweetness. The different Mejorado filler tobaccos provide complexity to the blend, supported by a Dominican binder and wrapper. Only a select few cigar rollers have the skills to craft the complex Perfecto shape format.

PADRÓN 1964 PRINCIPE ROBUSTO 42

This cigar is a full-bodied Nicaraguan Puro with hints of cocoa, coffee bean, and sweet spices. All tobacco used in this limited production series is aged for four years, creating a smooth and complex flavor. The Padron 1964 Anniversary Series is consistently ranked by industry experts as one of the top brands in the world.

{ MEDIUM }

ANASTASIA TORO LIMITED

26

Anastasia is a collaborative effort from Caldwell Cigar Co. and E. P. Carrillo with notes of cedar, toast, pepper, honey, raisins, and nuts. A complex medium-bodied smoke that delivers an unforgettable experience, Anastasia does not disappoint. These cigars are extremely limited.

ARTURO FUENTE SHORT STORY

15

Hemingway wrote many short stories, but unfortunately, he never lived to smoke one. This vintage Dominican beauty is velvety smooth with deep luxurious flavors that only time and the skilled hands of Fuente y Cia. can produce. Packaged as a single cigar.

OLIVA MASTER BLENDS 3 TORPEDO

25

Master Bends 3 is the third offering in a series of limited artisanal blends. Liga Maestra is specifically blended to deliver the richest characteristics of Nicaraguan Ligero fillers and Broadleaf sun-grown wrappers. It is a complex cigar crafted for the most developed palate.

{ FULL }

DAVIDOFF NICARAGUA ROBUSTO 36

Davidoff Nicaragua are the first Davidoff made using entirely Nicaraguan tobaccos. They start with a light, mellow flavor reminiscent of a warm summer day. Light and airy, the Nicaraguan imparts flavors of hay and cedar with just a hint of cocoa and coffee.

PADRÓN 4000 TORO 19

Only Cuban seed tobacco that has been aged for two and a half years are used in the manufacture of this Nicaraguan Puro. The draw on this cigar is perfect and, over the first inch, the burn is also solid. Medium-bodied, the flavors are dark and rich: espresso and roasted nuts prevail. However, beyond the first inch, the cigar hits its stride and becomes medium to full in body and flavor with more intensity and richness.

OLIVA SERIE V TORPEDO 24

Serie V is a complex blend of Nicaraguan long filler tobaccos. Blended with specifically fermented Jalapa Valley Ligero and finished with a high priming Habano sun-grown wrapper, this cigar is blended to deliver full body and taste while maintaining an unparalleled smoothness. This flavorful blend exhibits complex tobacco with rich coffee and dark chocolate tones.

ASHTON VSG 34.50

Ashton VSG cigars are extremely well-made gems from The Dominican Republic. The tobaccos used are exquisite making each cigar within the line a home-run from start to finish. Taken from the tobacco plant's highest priming, the Ecuadorian sun-grown wrapper offers a rich, reddish hue and spicy, chewy flavor. The four to five-year-old Dominican long fillers are masterfully blended to promote a smooth, but eventful flavor that's hearty and robust. Together, these tobaccos combine to satisfy even the most achieved palates.

{ ROMEO Y JULIETA }

The Romeo y Julieta marque was established in 1875 by Inocencio Alvarez and Manin Garcia. The brand is named for Shakespeare's famous tragedy, Romeo and Juliet. Between 1885 and 1900, the brand won numerous awards at different tasting exhibitions (as still evidenced by the gold medals on the brand's logo). However, the brand truly bloomed after it was acquired by Jose "Pepin" Rodriguez Fernandez, former head of the Cabañas factory in Havana, and his firm, Rodríguez, Argüelles y Cia, in 1903.

{ H. UPMANN }

H. Upmann is among the oldest cigar brands in existence, dating back to the 1840s. Around 1840, banker Herman Upmann opened a branch office in Havana, which provided ample opportunity to send cigars home to Europe. The possibilities of a commercial endeavor became clear to Upmann and in 1844 he invested in a cigar factory and the H. Upmann brand was launched. Upmann is sometimes credited with the invention of packaging cigars in cedar boxes to give to their customers. These original boxes were labeled with the H. Upmann name and contained other manufacturers' cigars, most likely as an advertisement for the operation, until the Upmanns bought their own cigar factory in 1844: the famous H. Upmann Factory, now known as the José Martí Factory, in Havana.

He migrated to Cuba in 1831 and worked for Lloret de Mar businessman, Joan Conill in Havana. Establishing his own factory, La Flor de Tabacas de Partagás in 1845, at 1 Cristina St., in Havana. Don Jaime owned many of the best plantations in the Vuelta Abajo tobacco-growing region of Cuba; being able to choose from among the finest tobaccos on the island made the brand incredibly successful. Don Jaime is also believed to have experimented with various methods of fermenting and aging tobacco and is legendarily credited with hiring one of the first lectors to read to and entertain the cigar rollers as they worked.

The Punch brand was first registered in 1840 by German named Stockmann and named for the European puppet show character, Mr. Punch (not the magazine, which was created a year later). The brand quickly became a success, especially in Great Britain. The first change of ownership came in 1874, when the brand was bought by a Luis Corujo, and again in 1884, when the brand was purchased by Manuel López Fernández and its bands and boxes still bear his name to this day.

{ HOYO DE MONTERREY }

In 1831, Don José Gener y Batet emigrated to Cuba from Spain at the age of thirteen, where he worked on his uncle's plantation in Vuelta Abajo. Twenty years later, he would open his own cigar factory in Havana and begin producing his own cigar line, La Escepción. In 1865, after using his factory's profits to acquire one of the best tobacco farms in Vuelta Abajo, he registered a cigar line named for it: Hoyo de Monterrey. Literally translated from Spanish to English as "the Hole of Monterrey".

{ BOLIVAR }

The brand was founded (possibly in Great Britain) by José F. Rocha around 1901 or 1902, though the brand was not registered in Havana (Cuba) until 1921, under the ownership of Rocha's firm, J.F. Rocha y Cia "the Hole of Monterrey".

The Cuban Bolívar has a reputation among cigar aficionados of being one of the strongest and most full-bodied cigars, with its Royal Corona, Coronas Junior, Petit Coronas, and Belicosos Finos being famous examples of the marque. In 2002, when Altadis bought a controlling share in the Cuban government-owned cigar distributor, Habanos SA, a number of changes in cigar production were instituted.

{ MONTECRISTO }

In July 1935, Alonso Menéndez purchased the Particulares Factory, makers of the popular Particulares brand and the lesser-known Byron. Immediately after its acquisition, he created a new brand named Montecristo.

The name for the brand was inspired by the Alexandre Dumas, père novel The Count of Monte Cristo, which was supposedly a very popular choice among the torcedores (cigar rollers) in their factory to have read by the lector on the rolling floor. The now-famous Montecristo logo, consisting of a triangle of six swords surrounding a fleur-de-lis, was designed by John Hunter Morris and Elkan Co. Ltd., the brand's British distributor.

In July 1936, Menéndez founded a new firm with a partner, naming it Menéndez, García y Cia. With the growing success of the Montecristo brand, the firm purchased the faltering H. Upmann Factory from J. Frankau SA in 1937 and transferred the production of Montecristo from the Particulares Factory to H. Upmann, which continued to be the home of the Montecristo brand after the Revolution. Government-owned cigar distributor, Habanos SA, a number of changes in cigar production were instituted.

BALLENTINE'S

1,700

The heritage of Ballantine's Scotch whisky can be traced back to 1827, when farmer's son George Ballantine set up a small grocery store in Edinburgh supplying a range of whiskies to his clientele. In 1865 George delegated the store's operation to his eldest son, Archibald, while he opened a larger establishment in Glasgow. Trading as "George Ballantine and Son Ltd", the firm added a bonded warehouse and began to export their Scotch. George senior retired in 1881, George junior taking over, and died 10 years later at 83.

SUNNY BROOK BOURBON

The Sunny Brook brand was established in 1891 and sold nationally in 1892. The distillery buildings were used as concentration warehouses during Prohibition and Sunny Brook continued to be sold as a medicinal whiskey. In 1933, the properties became a part of American Medical Spirits, and later National Distillers.

PRE-EMBARGO { RON }

The main brand of rum in Cuba is Havana Club, produced by a company that was confiscated and nationalized by the government during the revolution. Bacardi later bought the brand from the original owners, the Arechabala family. The Cuban government, in partnership with the French company Pernod Ricard, sells its Havana Club products internationally, except for the United States and its territories. Bacardi created Havana Club rum based on the original recipe from the Arechabala family, manufactures it in Puerto Rico, and sells it in Florida. Bacardi continues to fight in the courts, attempting to legalize their own Havana Club trademark outside the United States. Drinks now made in the former Cuban Bacardi distillery are sold in Cuba under the name Caney.

All the rums that are now made in the original Bacardi factory in Santiago de Cuba are sold in Cuba and worldwide, except for the US and its territories, under the names of Santiago de Cuba, Canay, Mulata, Cuba Ron, Veradero and of course, Havana Club.
