WOMEN IN WINE

Largely excluded from the history of wine, women were kept from achieving positions of influence as a result of superstitions, biases and social stereotypes. Today, they are making some of the world's finest wines. This page is our celebration of the talented ladies leading the way towards a more significant female presence in the wine world.

MARTHA McCLELLAN

Martha McClellan graduated from Geisenheim University as the only woman in the institution's history to complete a degree in Enology and Viticulture. She then spent many years perfecting her winemaking skills across Germany and Australia. After returning to the United States, she worked six vintages at the venerable Harlan Estate which led to similarly prestigious positions throughout Napa Valley.

CELIA WELCH

Being the daughter of an avid wine collector and home winemaker, Celia Welch had an early introduction to wine appreciation and the elements of winemaking. She attended the prestigious UC Davis Enology program when female winemakers were a rarity and went on to consult as well as make wine for many of Napa Valley's premiere labels.

MAGGIE HARRISON

After working with Manfred and Elaine Krankl as assistant winemaker for the iconic Sine Qua Non label for 9 years, Maggie Harrison struck out on her own. A dare from close friends brought her up to Oregon to view a potential vineyard site. Famously, after 26 seconds of viewing the site she was convinced and uprooted her life. As co-owner, winemaker and vineyard manager at Antica Terra, she strives to make wines that "are transparently wonderful, pleasurable and beautiful."
