Michael Mina's story is one of over three decades of influence, passion, and achievement. With accolades including James Beard Foundation "Who's Who of Food & Beverage," Gayot Restaurateur of the Year, Bon Appétit Chef of the Year, as well as the International Food and Beverage Forum's Restaurateur of the Year, Michael continues to dazzle the culinary world with bold dining concepts that have contributed to San Francisco's reputation as a world-class epicurean destination and made him an integral part of the dining scene across the country and beyond.

Michael's culinary and business vision led to the founding of his company, MINA Group, with partner Andre Agassi in 2002. Under the auspices of MINA Group, he has opened over 40 virtual brands and brick-and-mortar outlets across the U.S. and Dubai. Playing a fundamental role in the development of the San Francisco dining scene, his Bay Area projects include Bourbon Burger Bar, Bourbon Pub at San Francisco International Airport, Clock Bar, Estiatorio Ornos a Michael Mina Restaurant, Indie Superette, International Smoke, Mac 'n Cue, MINA Family Kitchen, PABU, SHACK15, Tokyo Hot Chicken, and upcoming The Bungalow Kitchen by Michael Mina - Tiburon. Tokyo native and revered chef Ken Tominaga, owner of Hana Japanese Restaurant in Sonoma County, has established himself as one of the Bay Area's leading authorities on Japanese cuisine. Tominaga's evolving menu is based on the core principles of using only the highest quality, freshest fish and incorporating the best local produce. At PABU, Ken is introducing San Francisco to his modern izakaya and sushi bar concept, highlighting his creative twist on traditional Japanese dining options.

Tominaga attended the Akasaka Cooking School in Tokyo. By day, he learned to cook everything from tempura to udon. By night, he frequented his favorite sushi restaurants, studying the work of the sushi masters he'd known since he was a boy. Coaxing them to reveal recipes and tips, Ken would then adapt their secrets to reflect his personal style, while still representing authentic Japanese tradition.

In 1990, he opened Hana Japanese Restaurant, developing a devoted, cult following among fellow chefs and the local restaurant industry. Hana was the continuation of his learning process, and he works every day to refine his cuisine. It is that same attention to detail that Ken brings to PABU, a partnership with celebrated chef and founder of Award-Winning MINA Group, Michael Mina, who met 10 years ago when Mina visited Hana. Mina fell in love with Ken's inventive omakase menu, and it was not long before Mina and his family became regulars at Hana. The two chefs developed a friendship and a mutual admiration for one another's craft, and they began plans to collaborate on a Japanese concept, PABU, that came to life in 2014.
