CHAMPAGNE FLIGHT

Cristal was created in 1876 to satisfy the demanding tastes of Tsar Alexander II. The emperor asked Louis Roederer to reserve the House's best cuvée for him every year. He was particularly fond of the House's wine. To distinguish this cuvée, this exceptional champagne came in a flat-bottomed, transparent lead-crystal bottle. The new brand was named after this precious material, which is particularly transparent and luminous.

CHAMPAGNE & SPARKLING WINE

CHAMPAGNE | GRAND MARQUE CHAMPAGNE

The top "grande marque" houses have set the benchmark for consistency and quality in champagne. Rarely are their "tete-de-cuvees" eclipsed in their ageworthiness and overall elegance by the grower producers, who are often considered more fashionable than the big houses since arriving on the scene in the last 30 years.

WHITES OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

The mediterranean was the cradle of civilization, as well as the likely birthplace of the vine. Historians believe humans first encountered wine grapes in modern day Lebanon and by 4100 bce, domesticated them in modern day Armenia and Georgia. The Phoenicians, followed later by the greeks and romans, spread the vine on every side of the sea. Though celebrated in antiquity, many of the traditional wines of the mediterranean exist in obscurity today regardless of their clear potential and historic importance. It is believed two-thirds of the vine varieties on earth are indigenous to the mediterranean, and we believe that these wines are natural accompaniments to great mediterranean ingredients found on our menu.

GREECE

The wild west of the mediterranean: Greece is home to 227 inhabited islands, and several hundred unique grape varieties. Winemaking techniques that have been handed down from generation to generation have preserved a rich history in this iconic region.

NORTHERN ITALY

TUSCANY, LIGURIA, MARCHE, PIEDMONT, VENETO, TRENTO

Northern Italy is more famous for its reds than its whites. However, gewurztraminer, verdicchio, garganega, and vermentino, demonstrate how the white grapes of the north can be equally nuanced and fascinating.

FRANCE | PROVENCE, RHÔNE, AND LANGUEDOC-ROUSSILLON

The greeks founded marseilles in 600 bce. it is generally accepted that this was the first true wine region in modern day France. Though, for millenia wines from the "sud" have been prized, in post wwii-europe they were forgotten about due to neglect and overproduction. Today these regions have awakened and are sources of incredible whites, rich in both aroma and texture.

WHITES OF CONTINENTAL EUROPE

The top wine regions of continental Europe exist as a result of the church and its desire to expand. Starting in the middle ages, wine became an integral component of the sacrament and followed Catholicism through its expansion. Some of the most iconic wines of the world including Burgundy, Champagne, Alsace, and the Mosel have the Catholic church to thank.

FRANCE | BURGUNDY

By 910CE Benedictine and Cistercian monks found themselves in burgundy tending vines under Charlemagne. The vineyards were slowly delineated, and the best wines went to the church. Many of the vineyards, documented centuries ago, still produce some of the most sought after wines in the world.

THE BACKROADS OF BURGUNDY

The best producers make equally great wines from humble vineyard holdings as they do with their grand crus. The producers below are making exciting wines from up-and-coming areas in burgundy.

MEURSAULT

Many of the best white burgundy producers are based in Meursault. though this village contains no classified grand crus, the quality of the wines made from its top premier crus are rarely surpassed.

This overlooked commune for white burgundy ironically "overlooks", some of the greatest chardonnay vineyards in the world. You can even throw a stone from certain vineyards in Saint-Aubin right into Chevalier-Montrachet grand cru... just down the hill.

WHITES OF CONTINENTAL EUROPE

SPAIN | GALICIA

Just as the church brought the wine grape to northern Europe, it also brought the wine grape into the Iberian peninsula after an absence of multiple centuries. The Camino de Santiago pilgrimage reached its apex after the 12th century as the Moorish rule began to collapse. Devout Catholics traveled from as far as modern-day Czech Republic to reach St. James' reputed burial site at Santiago de Compostela in Galicia. Along the way, grape vines were planted for sacramental purposes and many grapes in Spain today likely came from countries along this journey.

SPAIN | CATALONIA AND BASQUE COUNTRY

Though technically part of Spain, Catalonia and Basque Country consider themselves independent and have on several recent occasions attempted to secede from the rest of Spain. This Basque corner of Spain has a unique cultural identity, and this is exemplified by its unique cuisine, ciders, and wines.

Rioja is renowned for its legendary, long-lived reds. Its whites, based on Viura and Malvasia, are lesser known as they comprise a minor proportion of these regions' wines. However, the best of them are equally long-lived and perhaps the most age-worthy dry white wine made anywhere.

ROSÉS AND ORANGES

ROSÉ WINES

Historically, rosé has been viewed as a simple wine. And though there are "simple" rosés (just as there are also simple whites and reds), there are also rosés as compelling, ageworthy, and terroir driven as their friends of other colors. The mediterranean is a hotbed for distinct styles of rosé, spanning those which are salmon in color, to some that might be confused for a very light red.

REDS OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

The mediterranean is the cradle of civilization, as well as the likely birthplace of the vine. Historians believe humans first encountered wine grapes in modern day Lebanon and, by 4100 bce, domesticated them in modern day Armenia and Georgia. The Phoenicians, followed later by the Greeks and Romans, spread the vine on every side of the sea. Though celebrated in antiquity, many of the traditional wines of the Mediterranean exist in obscurity today regardless of their clear potential and historic importance. It is believed two-thirds of the vine varieties on earth are indigenous to the Mediterranean, and we believe that these wines are natural accompaniments to great Mediterranean ingredients found on our menu.

ITALY

Before 1861, hundreds of city states comprised what we now refer to as Italy. Look no further than the cuisine and wines of these former city states to see that every region has a distinct cultural identity. Combined, over 475 grape varieties (many of which are planted nowhere else) span Italy's length, which is longer than Texas! Although latitude plays an important role in the styles of wines that are made in each region, equally impactful is a region's proximity to the coast. Below, we separate the coastal areas which share more in common with other Mediterranean regions (like Greece and Southern France) from inland ones which share more in common with cooler continental regions (like Burgundy and Rioja).

FRANCE | SOUTHERN RHÔNE VALLEY

Pope Boniface viii (famously depicted in the eighth circle of hell in Dante's inferno) set off a chain of events that changed the French wine landscape forever. In 1309 ce, the Avignon papacy was born as a result of his feud with King Phillip iv, ultimately resulting in his abduction and death. The papacy split and Avignon pope (John xii) thereafter developed a papal vineyard: châteauneuf-du-pape (chateau of the new pope). This is the premier region in the world for grenache, blended with up to 17 other indigenous grape varieties.

FRANCE | NORTHERN RHÔNE VALLEY

In the 17th and 18th century, the wines of hermitage were sold at prices dwarfing what are now first growth Bordeaux estates. Famously, some Bordeaux producers at the time added Rhone wines to their blend to add strength and complexity. Today the wines of the northern Rhone are incredibly undervalued given they demonstrate the height that Syrah is capable of.

Red Burgundy has an impressive ability to age for decades... but impatience also has its rewards. GEVREY-CHAMBERTIN

Gevrey is the northernmost bastion for truly fine red wines in Burgundy. Its 26 premier crus and 9 grand crus specialize in wines that are full bodied and muscular. These are Pinots with darker, smokier, and earthier fruit tones than you'll find anywhere else on the cote. The best examples include Armand rousseau, Fourrier, and Bachelet... but the good news is, there are too many to count!

MOREY-ST.-DENIS

The power of Gevrey-Chambertin meets the glorious aromatics of Chambolle-Musigny. Morey was once overshadowed by its neighbors yet today it is gaining the respect it deserves. Vosne encompasses 24 premier crus and 8 grand crus, some of whom quite literally are the source of the rarest wines on earth. Burgundy's greatest producer, Domaine de la Romanee-Conti, is based here along with many other great domaines like Anne Gros, Francois Lamarche, Comte Liger-Belair, Sylvain Cathiard, and Emmanuel Ruget.

It wasn't until the 17th century that the most sought after Bordeaux vineyards were planted. The reason? They were under water!
